

VARIANCE APPLICATION

FACTS

What is a variance? A variance is any modification or variation of official controls where it is deemed that, by reason of exceptional circumstances, strict enforcement of official controls would cause a practical difficulty.

When is a variance necessary? A variance is necessary when a landowner desires to undertake a project that will not comply with one or more ordinance regulations.

Who decides if a variance will be granted? The Helga Town Board acts as the Board of Appeals and Adjustment and rules on variance applications. This Board consists of the five elected officers each service 4-year terms. Any variance applications will be addressed each month during the regular town meeting.

How does the Town Board determine whether to approve a variance? The Town Board is legally required to use questions known as the "findings of fact" (along with applicable sections in applicable ordinances) to determine if a practical difficulty exists- which is the basis for granting a variance. The owner has the burden of demonstrating that sufficient practical difficulties exist, based on the following criteria, with respect to its property to justify the issuance of a variance. The Town shall consider the following criteria in determining whether to issue a variance:

1. The variance is in harmony with the general purposes and intent of this Ordinance and is consistent with the comprehensive plan;
2. The variance is consistent with the comprehensive plan;
3. The owner proposes to use the property in a reasonable manner not permitted by this Ordinance;
4. The plight of the owner is due to circumstances unique to the property that were not created by the owner;
5. If granted, the variance will not alter the essential character of the locality; and
6. Economic considerations are not the sole basis for the requested variance.

Questions 1-6 below are only used for ATF variance application findings of fact when the above 5 questions are all answered "yes".

1. Why did the applicant fail to obtain the required permit or comply with the applicable official control before commencing work? Was there any attempt to comply with the applicable official controls?
2. Did the applicant make a substantial investment in the property before learning of the failure to comply with the applicable official controls?
3. Did the applicant complete the work before being informed of the violation of applicable official controls?
4. Are there structures, circumstances, or conditions in the area similar to those that are the subject of the variance request?
5. Based on all of the facts, does it appear to the Board of Adjustment that the applicant acted in good faith?
6. Would the benefit to the township appear to be outweighed by the detriment the applicant would suffer if forced to remove the structure?

What is the process after a variance application is submitted?

1. Department reviews application: Complete applications are placed on the next available Town Board meeting agenda. Letters detailing missing information are sent to applicants who submit incomplete applications. Resubmitted applications, if deemed complete, are placed on the next available Town Board meeting agenda.
2. Meeting notice given: Landowners within 1/4 mile of the property will receive mailed notice of your variance application as will relevant government agencies. The meeting agenda is also published on the Town website and in the official Town legal notice newspaper.
3. Lot viewal: Based on the specific variance and site conditions, a lot viewal may be conducted by members of the Town Board and Planning Commission. Lot viewals are not formal and may be conducted at any time by members of the Town Board and Planning Commission. If special arrangements are required, or if you prefer the lot viewal is formally scheduled, you must coordinate with the Land Use Administrator.
4. Town Board meeting held: The Town Board will ask you to present your application. Audience members will also be allowed to comment on the application. The BOA may approve, deny, or table the application.
5. Apply for permits: If your variance is approved, the accompanying permit(s) must be obtained before starting your project(s). Please wait a few days after the meeting to apply for your permit(s) so the department can process the variance decision paperwork.

Must I attend the Town Board meeting? No. However, it is in your best interest to attend the meeting to ensure your project is properly explained and understood. Therefore, it is recommended that you consult the Town Board meeting calendar to ensure you can attend the meeting during the month for which your application is being submitted.
